

Everest Educational Society's Group of Institutions
Internal Quality Assurance Cell

Code of Conduct for Teachers

A faculty member should

- Follow the policies and standards set out by the College Management
- Follow the deadlines Set by the College Management.
- Follow the policies and standards set out by the College Management.
- Keep all the Academic Documentation Part Updated.
- Devote your time in doing the Value Added Activities.
- Organize the Different Co-Curricular Activities.
- Always treat your Colleagues Regardless of their Status.
- Maintain the Dignity & integrity of the Profession.
- Everyone Should Obey the Verbal or written Directives of the Superiors.
- Record Biometric Attendance Regularly.
- Engage all theory classes and practical sessions for full duration as per schedule
- Motivate the Students to Become Good in their Academic work.
- Encourage the students to take participation in Co-curricular Activities.

Principal

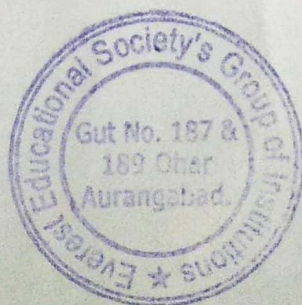

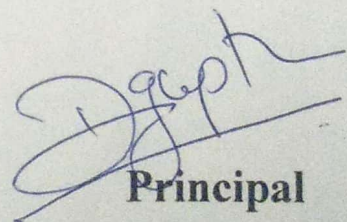

Everest Educational Society's Group of Institutions
Internal Quality Assurance Cell

Code of Conduct for Students

All the Students of Everest Educational Society's College of Engineering & Technology Should Follow the below given Code of Conduct.

- College I-Card is Compulsory. If Any Student found to not wearing the I-Card will not allowed to enter into the Classroom.
- Students should wear the college uniform on the said days of the week
- Attendance in the classes for theory as well as practical is compulsory.
- All the Students should be Punctual for classes and should avoid coming late
- All the Students should try to Speak in English Language in the College Campus
- Everyone should utilize library hour for gaining Over and Above knowledge.
- Everyone should participate in the Sports Activities conducted by our College & by the University.
- Everyone Should Participate in Cultural Events conducted by our College.
- Everyone Should Participate in the Technical Events

Principal